

What we have done

Information about activities done in the different countries.

FDINGEN 4. SEPTEMBER 2023, 08:10 UTC

Write articles for the blog.

Promotion of the TFSDG to other projects.

Creating brochures and giving them out to create awareness

Having an online activity focusing on promoting the SDGs, having a debate and using Kahoot as a fun way of creating awareness about the SDGs among both pupils and adults (climate change, good practices).

Using games as a method of raising awareness for the pupils.

Volunteering: helping the local community - food, clothes, money.

Planting trees to give off oxygen, reduce amount of storm water, reduce erosion and pollution and flooding.

Making artistic interventions with objects being reused: CDs, DVDs, plastics etc.

Working with the pupils skills: digital and english - as a part of them integrating into to the information society and raising awareness of the SDGs.

Focusing on water quality - think before you flush, sources of pollution (Marine, land, sewage), litter in the environment.

Looking in to the possibility to engage dedicated sustainability officers.

Green campus: encouraging the staff and students to engage with other EU-funded projects looking at specific SDGs.

Student action: organising events and clubs within the school, including green dats, clothes recycling events, LGBTQ clubs.

SDG-house: construction a model house to promote the SDG`s. Creating a hotspot with the help of IT-students, leading to SDG information. The house was displayed at a learning festival where the public could ask questions about the SDGs.

College SDG display. Displaying the goals in windows to increase student awareness.

Focusing at student participation and raising their awareness.

Giving information about SDG through noticeboards, college newsletters, staff meetings and through an established sustainability staff group.

Working for the sustainable development goals, getting them into the curriculum and mindset of the pupils through improving Slovenia's actions for sustainable development goals.

Participating at the interactive info-session on the EU's official development assistance - "in times of multiple crises".

Raising awareness about Brazilian indigenous peoples in the rainforest. Protection of the rainforest and the indigenous way of life.

Sustainability walk: Walk around the city center where visiting different stations with information about the sustainability goals.

South Africa trip: Cultural exchange, collaboration with University. Visiting and helping areas with troubled families.

School garden: Growing food in the school garden and using the vegetables in home education and other subjects.

Helping local families: Collecting used toys and other stuff and then packaging them, giving them away.

Plogging: Running and picking up trash in the surroundings.

Re-designing clothes: Making old clothes, worn clothes better by repairing them and changing them.

Beach cleanups: Cleaning beaches for trash (bottles, plastic etc.)

"Hope" - Charity project for helping daycenter in for children and families. , Sao Paolo, Brazil. "Charity run".

*********